Training or Experience Related to the Commission or Board Post for Which you are Applying:

Though I have never received formal engineering training, I have worked as a process engineer for the past ten years, first at OnLogic and now at BETA. I believe this experience of developing and honing processes is directly applicable to understanding and guiding the decision making around public works projects, which I'm passionate about! I currently work as a product (and sometimes project) manager at BETA, I believe this experience will enable me to help build consensus when needed.

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I want to help guide DPW to make the best decisions possible. By applying my engineering and project management background, I believe I can help to rationally evaluate all our options, and help to build consensus around the best ideas. I am especially passionate about public transportation, and I hope to help guide the city to make our streets safe for cyclists and pedestrians while maintaining effective and convenient facilities for all road users. Water management and delivery, wastewater treatment, snow removal, parking and permitting are all important ways that government affect resident's every day lives and I find them all to be interesting challenges and opportunities. I'm passionate about process improvement and efficiency, and would apply those skills to all the decisions before the commission.

How did you learn of the opportunity/opening to serve on a Board/Commission?

I watch the DPW commission meetings online and saw there would be an opening

I love problem solving, I am passionate about doing the best work I can with the resources I am given, and I work hard to build consensus on every decision I make. I have run on every street in Burlington (and Winooski!) and seeing the best, and worst, of what our transportation system has to offer has inspired me to apply for this role. In my free time I enjoy reading books about traffic engineering and city planning, which helped me to draw the connection between my engineering skills and this role.

What do you hope to accomplish as a Commissioner/Board Member?

I live and work in Burlington, and I want to see it become the best version of itself that it can be. Of all of the places I've lived, Burlington feels like home. It seems we are in somewhat of a pivotal time as a municipality, in an number of ways.

Burlington is growing, but we are also facing a financial and climate crisis. How people move around in our city, and the the infrastructure that the city builds to accomdate it, will critically impact our ability to manage those crises and our growth. I want to apply my valuable perspective and skillset to positively influence the city to set us up for the best future possible.
