MINUTES

Jason L'Ecuyer called the meeting to order at 7:02 pm.

Barry Trutor nominated Martha Molpus to join the steering committee, and Rich Nadworny seconded the nomination. Martha was elected unanimously.

RJ Lalumiere, Jason L'Ecuyer, Jay Kearney, and Rich Nadworny gave an update on the North Avenue Task Force. Much of the discussion was about changes to entering and exiting Route 127 to increase safety.

Liam Griffin provided an update from the Bicycle & Pedestrian Advisory Committee.

Councilors Tom Ayres and Kurt Wright gave an update on City Council business. School Commissioners Anne Judson and Mark Barlow also spoke to District initiatives, including efforts to get the new Superintendent visa authorization.

CCTA, represented by Meredith Birkett, gave a powerpoint presentation on current CCTA service in the New North End and the process for changing it.

Eric Farrell displayed a sketch plan and provided an update on the development of the Burlington College Orphanage building.

During speak out, announcements were made about Blue, a program through DPW to reduce stormwater runoff, and the Farrington Mobile Home Park residents placing an offer to purchase as a cooperative from the current owners.

Mayor Miro Weinberger discussed highlights of the FY16 City Budget and shared his thoughts on the City Housing Action Plan.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:14.
